Aloha and Greetings!

As we enjoy this season of many celebrations we wish to express our gratitude to King William Charles Lunalilo for his foresight to provide for our kūpuna. We honor our kūpuna for their knowledge and for allowing us to care for them with aloha. A mahalo is extended to our staff and volunteers at Lunalilo Home who support our mission to be the foremost system of elder services to Native Hawaiians.

Generous donors to Lunalilo Home are especially appreciated for their willingness to share in our efforts to provide financial assistance to those in need. Our donors are honored as partners to help us lay a foundation for Lunalilo Home’s future; one that increasingly serves more kūpuna, our kūpuna’s `ohana, and our kūpuna community. Without their contributions, the successes that we have enjoyed would not have been possible.

During the past year, Lunalilo Home has initiated free care-giver workshops and support groups; provided a Hawaiian Legacy Film Series to honor kūpuna; forged partnerships with the University of Hawai`i to train nursing students in elder care; and has, compared with any year over the past decade, served and subsidized more Hawaiians than ever.

Costs associated with operating a quality residence that embraces compassionate and respectful care for kūpuna continue to escalate and threaten our ability to grow and serve even more kūpuna. The average yearly subsidy that is provided for an individual in need is $36,000 and the total amount of subsidies expended for the year is expected to top greater than $650,000. Substantially more than half of that amount is provided through contributions from donors and participants in fund raising events. That impact is significant! Without these contributions, Lunalilo Home and its subsidized residential services would not survive.

Our kūpuna need your support. As the year comes to a close and everyone is in the spirit of giving, please be generous in making a donation to Lunalilo Home. Na kākou a pau ke kuleana pono e mālama pono i kō kākou kūpuna makamae. It is our true collective responsibility to care well for our precious elders.

May Day was Lei Day at Lunalilo Home

At Lunalilo Home, the May Day brings nahenahe music, hula and celebration among our kupuna, `ohana and community. Lunalilo Home’s annual May Day tradition commenced this year with the crowning of Queen Evon Silva, her escort, Henry Lane, and the procession of the Royal Court princesses, consisting of residents and clients of the Home and Adult Day Care Center. All received a royal reception featuring music by the Ladies of the Ka`ahumanu Society.

Earlier in the week, the Ladies of Ka`ahumanu visited the Home and presented a program centered around the history of the flower and color representing each Island. Following their lead, the May Day celebration consisted of all islands being elegantly represented in color and song as the Princess procession of Anna Cazimero, Gertila Kaanapu, Mapuana Kapana, Ethel Buchanan, Violet Lau, Olivia Martin, Eileen Pate, and Yvonne Iaela graced the `Ohana Room.

Kahili bearer, Clifford Kapololu led the procession as family, friends, visitors and staff of Lunalilo Home and Adult Day Care joined the festivities! Each resident was adorned with Lei provided by a family member, or generous donor. In his typical fashion, Uncle Roy Benham hand-crafted beautiful arrangements from donated flowers and fern.

Traditionally, the Queen will reign over various events planned at the Home during the course of the next year. Family and friends from the community are invited to join us in many of these celebrations. Your participation and support of our events contribute greatly to the quality of life of our residents and clients!

Family Fun on the 4th of July!

Lunalilo Home celebrated the 4th of July with its annual barbeque, parade, singing, and family fun!
Holiday Festivities

Halloween Costume Parade!
Kupuna and staff get into the “Spirit” of Halloween with the annual costume parade!

Celebrating the Holiday Season
The holiday season is a wonderful time at Lunalilo Home—vibrant with holiday spirit, festive décor, and visits from families, friends and community groups sharing their talents of music and heartfelt aloha. Highlights include: the annual Hawaii Kai Lion’s Club Christmas Party with a visit from Santa, the Lunalilo Home Kupuna Christmas Program, and gifts of aloha from various community groups.
Kanikapila—Kupuna Style
Lunalilo Home kupuna regularly enjoy mele and hula—sharing their joy for music during kanikapila sessions with family and friends. Of recent was a special visit from the Hawaiian music group, Kapena, and the Royal Order of Kamehameha who brought beautiful music and delightful opportunities for the kupuna to enjoy and sing along.

Papa `Ölelo Hawai`i
Saturday afternoons at Lunalilo Home are a bustle of activity with a group of residents and individuals from the surrounding community deeply involved in a Native Hawaiian Language Class. Led by Hawaiian language instructor Carol Silva, this class provides residents with an opportunity to “talk story” and share their mo`olelo with others.

Preserving a legacy: A Lunalilo Home Film Series
The Home launched its Preserving a legacy: A Lunalilo Home Film Series on October 28, 2012. Featured are documentary films created by Hawaiian musician and film maker Eddie Kamae and his wife Myrna.

Presented in partnership with the Hawaiian Legacy Foundation, this monthly film series celebrates the music, language, people and places of old Hawai`i through documentary films.

This event provides opportunities for kupuna, families and community to come together to share memories and celebrate our Hawaiian history and culture.

Join us the last Sunday of each month at 2 pm.
Community Partnerships

Salvation Army Family Treatment Services
Each month, a group of ladies from Salvation Army Family Treatment Services donate their time, materials and talents as a way of giving back to the community. Using donated plant materials, they work with our kupuna to create beautiful table decorations. Mahalo to Malina Kaulukukui and her volunteers!

Community Service Organizations
Student interns from Ka’ala Farms came to the Home to prepare pa’i ʻai (pounded taro) for the kupuna to enjoy. They, along with YMCA summer students, also volunteered on a beautification project to repaint the Home walk-way railings. Mahalo to All!!

Mālama Maunalua
Coordinated by the nonprofit community organization Mālama Maunalua, approximately 100 Kamehameha Schools 7th graders and several Lunalilo Home and Adult Day Care kupuna were involved in various activities such as removing invasive limu at Paiko Beach Park, working in a watershed learning station, or at the limu ID station during the Malama Maunalua Huki.
21st Annual Golf Tournament Benefit a Great Success!

Lunalilo Home sponsors an annual Golf Tournament which helps raise much needed funds to help support the Home’s Native Hawaiian kupuna who have insufficient finances to pay the regular monthly service fees for their residency. Generous donations from participants and supporters of the tournament have played a key role in providing a lovely home and services for numerous residents.

This year, Hawaii Kai Golf Course and banquet facilities provided a beautiful setting for our tournament. For the third consecutive year, detailed coordination was handled by Grace Pacific Corporation’s President, Bill Paik and his experienced golf committee Tricia Louie and Ricky Tsue, along with community and Lunalilo Home volunteers.

A wonderful array of prizes were distributed during the dinner banquet, which opened with a pule and blessing by Kahu Curt Kekuna of Kawaiahaʻo Church. Guy Hagi, acting as emcee, along with entertainers Kama Hopkins and Keoni Souza, were crowd pleasers during the evening festivities.

It is with heartfelt gratitude that we say MAHALO to everyone who supported our event, and especially to those who provided significant financial support- Miss Abigail Kekaulike Kawananakoa, Hale Ka Lae, Ruth’s Chris Steakhouse, Grace Pacific Roadway Solutions, Office of Hawaiian Affairs, Queen Liliʻuokalani Trust and Children’s Center, Sandwich Isles Communications to make this year’s event the best it has ever been!
